

HERA CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The local arrangements committee has received support for registration scholarships for a minimum of six graduate students to attend the HERA Conference October 7 – 10, 2008 in Indianapolis. Students receiving the scholarship are expected to attend the entire conference. The scholarship awards are valued at $150.00 each. The students will need to provide their own transportation and lodging. Students are encouraged to stay at the conference hotel.

No more than two awards will be made to any one institution. Institutions are to select the names of the two students to be forwarded for the scholarship awards. Ball State will not be participating in this scholarship program.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Must be a graduate student, who is not employed in a full time position
- Must be enrolled in a housing related degree program
- Must be enrolled in at least 6 credit hours this fall term
- Must be willing to serve as a moderator of one of the educational sessions during the conference

APPLICATION

Student _____

Institution _____

E-mail _____

Major _____

Number of hours enrolled fall term _____

Verification of above information by academic graduate advisor:

Signature

Return the application by fax (765-285-2314) to Sue Whitaker at Ball State University by Wednesday September 10, 2008. Recipients will be notified, so they can submit the registration materials by September 15. The deadline for reserving the hotel at the convention rate is September 16, 2008.