

POSITIONS AVAILABLE/SOUGHT

Positions Available/Sought. Please send listings to Housing Educators Journal, Department of Family Economics and Management, Southern Illinois University 62901.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

1. Assistant professorship, Department of Consumer Sciences. Nine month appointment. Subject matter competencies desired: housing, work analysis, equipment and demonstration techniques. Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate courses. Doctorate preferred, preparation beyond master's degree required, college teaching desired. Send resume to Dr. Helen M. Goetz, P.O. Box G195, University, Alabama 35486.

2. Faculty position in area of Family Economics and Family Housing, available September, 1974, North Dakota State University. Ph.D., college teaching experience. Housing courses emphasize social and economic aspects of housing. Appointment for 10 months and summer school if desired. Send vita, transcripts, and current references to Mrs. Katherine Burgum, Dean, College of Home Economics, North Dakota State University, Fargo, North Dakota 58102.

3. Faculty position in Housing and Interior Design. University teaching experience desired, recognized design experience. Duties include senior-graduate level course work in spatial organization, construction systems, marketing methods, methods of planning and programming design projects, business procedures related to design profession and student involvement in community design projects. Major objective is the development of the creative innovative designer concerned with the accommodation of human needs. Applicant should be able to direct graduate study. Send resume, photographs of professional work and/or a list of publications, thesis abstract to Dr. Kate Ellen Rogers, Chairman, Housing and Interior Design Department, 140 Stanley Hall, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri 65201.

4. Position as Extension Housing Specialist and professorial rank in the College of Home Economics, University of Missouri, in accordance with background. Field travel, administrative work, some resident teaching. Duties: I) Develop and implement a statewide coordinated action program in housing that will bring about the improvement of the housing environment. II) Serve as Chairman of the Columbia Campus Committee on Missouri Housing, which would involve a variety of public service, education, and research duties, and III) Teach 6 credit hours per year. Applicant should have Ph.D. or equivalent in housing or related experience and possess an understanding of the social and psychological factors related to housing. Experience in extension, education, administration, and housing desirable. Write to Dr. Kate Ellen Rogers, Chairman, Department of Housing and Interior Design, University of Missouri-Columbia, Columbia, Missouri 65201.

5. Extension Specialist, Environmental Family Housing, Kansas State University. Ph.D. or M.S. in housing or related area. Contact Dr. Betty Jean Brannan, Assistant Director, Extension Quality of Living Programs, Umberger Hall, Kansas State University, Manhattan, Kansas 66506.

6. Faculty position in area of Housing and Interiors, Wayne State University; Available September, 1974. Nine month appointment, Summer teaching available. Responsibilities include teaching Housing and Interiors courses at undergraduate and graduate levels. Qualifications: Ph.D. or Master's degree, teaching experience at college level and professional experience desirable. Preferred subject matter competencies: interior design, studio skills, furniture history, psychosocial, economic and aesthetic aspects of housing. Write to Dr. Esther D. Callard, Department of Family and Consumer Resources, Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan 48202.

POSITIONS SOUGHT

(Note: For "blind" positions sought listed in this issue, please contact by file ID, Housing Educators Journal, Department of Family Economics and Management, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Illinois 62901.)

1. Houser with several years of college teaching experience, Ivy League Ph.D. near completion, master's degree in sociology. College teaching position sought. File KG.

2. Interdisciplinary housing team — one Ph.D. in housing economics, one Ph.D. in housing, sociology and research methodology. University teaching experience, considerable experience in all phases of research-survey design, sampling, interviewing, computer analysis, statistical analysis. Publications. Teaching/Research positions sought. File CI.

3. Family economics and housing teaching and/or research position sought by Ph.D. in consumer economics. Strong background in economics, statistics, computer programming. University teaching experience. Publications. Available July 1. File FB.

4. Ph.D. with major in housing, minor in social research methodology, seeks teaching/research position. University teaching and research experience, publications. Available July 1, 1974. File TE.