

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. Position available Fall 1976. Associate Professor Housing. Teaching, research, curriculum development, direct doctoral dissertations. Doctorate, experience required. Equal Opportunity/Affirmation Action Employer. Send vita to: Dr. Nancy Barclay; 224 Wallace Hall; V.P.I. & S.U.; Blacksburg, Virginia 24061.

Texas Tech University. Associate Professor or Professor of Housing. September 1976. Undergraduate and graduate teaching and research on sociological, psychological, and economic aspects of housing. Rapidly expanding program with well established B.S. and M.S. degree options and recently implemented Ph.D. program. Doctorate required. Competitive salary. Affirmative Action employer. Apply to Dr. Richard Henton; 144 Doak Hall; College of Home Economics; Texas Tech University; Lubbock, Texas 79409.

Oklahoma State. Position Available July 1, 1976. Head, Department of Housing, Design, and Consumer Resources. Bachelor and Master degree programs offered. Doctorate in housing, design, consumer resources (consumer economics/home management) or closely related discipline is preferred. Teaching and research competencies required. Send resume, transcripts and names of three references to: Dr. Kay Steward, Chairman of Search Committee; Oklahoma State University; Stillwater, OK 74074. An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.

Kansas State. Assistant Professor to teach housing at undergraduate and graduate levels; "The House", with emphasis on space and design for family living, "Social Effect of Housing", and "Housing Requirements for Families". Ph.D. and research experience required to participate in Master's and Doctoral programs. Beginning Fall, 1976. Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Contact: Richard L. D. Morse, Head; Department of Family Economics Kansas State University; Justin Hall; Manhattan, Kansas 66506.

Louisiana Cooperative Extension Service. Assistant or Associate Home Economics Specialist (Housing—Home Furnishings). Headquarters at Louisiana State University, A & M College, Baton Rouge, LA. Ph.D. desired, will consider Master's degree with background and desire to pursue a terminal degree. Contact: Dr. Betty Jane Hodgkins, State Agent (Home Economics); LA Cooperative Extension Service; Knapp Hall; University Station, Baton Rouge, LA 70803.

Memphis State University. Associate Professor of Home Economics. Specialization in Housing and Home Furnishings. Doctorate preferred, will consider person well along toward the doctorate. Contact: Dr. Marquita Irland, Chairman, Department of Home Economics; Memphis State University; Memphis, TN 38152.

Colorado State University. Ph.D. or equivalent in housing, interior design, related area, demonstrated successful college teaching and/or research, publications of creative work, educational materials and/or research findings. Contact: Carole J. Makela, Head, Department of Consumer Sciences and Housing; Aylesworth Hall; Colorado State University; Fort Collins, CO 80523.

Colorado State University. MS in equipment and/or housing, demonstrated successful college teaching and/or extension work and/or professional experience with a public or private organization, Ph. D. desirable. Contact: Carole J. Makela, Head, Department of Consumer Sciences and Housing; Aylesworth Hall; Colorado State University; Fort Collins, CO 80523.

Pennsylvania State University Cooperative Extension. Assistant Professor in Family Housing. Assist County and Regional Extension staff, plan, develop and implement educational programs to help Pennsylvania citizens meet their housing needs. Doctorate in Housing or other appropriate subject area with an emphasis on Family Housing. Masters with work towards doctorate considered. Contact: Dr. Helen E. Bell, Coordinator; Family Living Extension Programs; The Pennsylvania State University; 310 Agricultural Administration Building; University Park, PA 16802.

Ohio State University. Assistant Professor, Home Management and Housing Department. Teach graduate and undergraduate courses, advise master's and doctoral students, conduct research. Doctorate required. Contact: Mrs. Velma V. Everhart, Associate Professor; School of Home Economics, The Ohio State University; 1787 Neil Avenue; Columbus, Ohio 43210. (614) 422-6761.

North Dakota State University. Faculty position, Area of Consumer and Family Economics or Housing. Rank dependent upon qualification. Ph.D. preferred. Contact: Katherine Burgum, Dean; College of Home Economics; North Dakota State University; Fargo, North Dakota 58102.

North Dakota State University. Chairperson, Home Management—Family Economics Department. Teaching consumer and family economics or housing at undergraduate and graduate levels. Contact: Katherine Burgum, Dean; College of Home Economics; North Dakota State University; Fargo, North Dakota 58102.

Florida Cooperative Extension Service. For member of housing and near environment section in the Home Economics Department, Cooperative Extension Service. Doctorate degree in housing, equipment or related area preferred; MS degree required. Send inquiries to: R. C. Andrew, Assistant Dean—Personnel; 1041 McCarty Hall; IFAS; Gainesville, Florida 32611. Refer to position #61192.

Miami University. Visiting Instructor, Housing and Interior Design. Possibility of re-appointment. Doctorate degree or work towards a doctorate. Master's degree with experience considered. Contact: Dr. Jame L. Rees, Chairman; Department of Home Economics; Miami University; Oxford Ohio 45056. (513) 529-5915.

Prairie View A & M University. Instructor, Housing and Design. Available September 1, 1976. Qualifications: earned doctorate with major in housing and design or art education. M.F.A., M.A., or M.Ed. in housing and design, art education or graphic arts considered. Contact: Dr. Flossie M. Byrd, Dean; College of Home Economics; Prairie View A & M University; Prairie View, Texas 77445.

Texas A & I University. Instructor or Assistant Professor of Housing and Interior Design. Available Fall, 1976. Doctorate preferred, Master's acceptable in area of housing, home furnishings and interior design. Contact: Chairperson, Department of Home Economics; Texas A & I University; Campus Box 168; Kingsville, Texas 78363. Phone: (512) 595-2210.

Unique Habitats. Designer-design studio. Full time work, design program no experience necessary, ability to read a blue print, drafting, some design work. Contact: Lucy McCoy, Unique Habitats; 3640 George F. Highway; Endwell, New York.

Michigan State University. Chairperson, Department of Human Environment and Design. Background and experience in one discipline area of department with capability to comprehend and work across major areas of department. Ph.D., demonstrated leadership. Contact: Dr. Anna Creekmore, Chairperson, Search Committee; Department of Human Environment and Design; College of Human Ecology; Michigan State University; East Lansing, Michigan 48824.

Northwestern University. Assistant director of undergraduate housing. Bachelor's degree as well as some experience with university housing are required. Master's degree preferred. Skills in management, administrative and interpersonal relations. Contact: Thomas E. Lifka, Associate Dean of Students; Scott Hall #10; Northwestern University; Evanston, Illinois 60201.

South Dakota State University. Department Head in Textiles, Clothing and Interior Design Department. Earned doctorate in textiles and clothing or interior design, college teaching is required, demonstration of administrative ability as well as knowledge of and appreciation for all aspects of department in College of Home Economics essential, active participation in professional organizations. Contact: Alice Semeniuk, Chairman of Search Committee, College of Home Economics; South Dakota State University; Brookings, South Dakota 57006.

New Mexico State University. Dean of the College of Agriculture. Proven scholarship and accomplishments in some discipline of agriculture or home economics, suitable professional experience to qualify for a professorship in one of the existing departments, demonstrated administrative ability, leadership in policy decision-making, fiscal planning and management, program development. Contact: Glyn Throneberry, Chairman, Search Committee; Box 3BE; New Mexico State University; Las Cruces, New Mexico 88003.

Oregon State University. Visiting faculty for summer term 1976. Teach graduate level course in Family Housing, focusing on the socio-economic aspects of housing for families. July 19 through August 12. Contact: Dr. Geraldine Olson, Head, Home Management Department, Oregon State University, Corvallis, Oregon 97331.

Madison College. Teaching position in Housing, Equipment and Interior Design. Doctoral degree preferred. Contact: Dr. Dorothy Rowe, Madison College, Harrisonburg, Virginia 22801.

Mercyhurst College. Faculty position in Home Economics, responsible for the program in housing. Fall, 1976. Master's degree minimum. Contact: Dr. Jamie B. Yule, Chairperson, Division of Home Economics, Mercyhurst College, Erie, Pennsylvania 16501.

POSITION SOUGHT

Housing, Community Resource Development and Law Related Matters. Degrees: J.D., B.S. in business administration. Experience includes: Director of Community Development Corporation (self help housing, low and moderate income housing, senior citizen housing), general law practice; neighborhood legal services; representative to state legislature (sponsored or supported bills related to income mix in housing, illegal subdivisions, tenants representatvie system). Contact: File B, Housing Educators Journal.