

Housing Information Dissemination

Submitted by: Cora McKown, AAHE Representative to Southern Housing Action Task Force

The Southern Housing Action Task Force was founded from the Policies and Procedures section of the S-95-/TVA Quality Housing Environment for Rural Low-Income Families workshop held in Knoxville, Tennessee in 1978. Some of the functions of the Task Force are to increase visibility of housing research, increase housing research funding, and to increase dissemination of housing information. As the Task Force studies information dissemination it seems that much of housing research is channelled to other researchers. To increase the impact research findings might have on housing policies wider information distribution is needed. Communicating valuable housing information to decision makers might also provide a basis for increased research funding.

Members of the Task Force are:

William C. Boykin, William J. Flood, Charles J. Hayes, H. A. Henderson, Kim Herman, Marjorie Inman, James I. Mallett, Jacquelyn McCray, Cora McKown, Reed J. Petersen, Ben Poage, Tim Raines, William J. Tangye, Keith Waldrop.

The Task Force has compiled the following list of housing decision makers with whom you might wish to communicate:
